Art. 31 The General Executive Officer is responsible for:

- I direct and coordinate Copel Serviços;
- II manage the business of Copel Serviços in a sustainable manner, considering economic, social, environmental and climate change factors, as well as the related risks and opportunities, in all activities under their responsibility;

- III propose to the Board of Directors the duties of the executive officers;
- IV represent Copel Serviços, both actively and passively, in court or outside of it, and for this purpose, may appoint an attorney-in-fact with special powers, including powers to receive service of process and notifications, subject to Article 39 of these Bylaws;
- V direct and coordinate matters related to business planning and performance;
- VI ensure the achievement of the goals of Copel Serviços, as established in accordance with the general guidelines set by the General Shareholders' Meeting and the Board of Directors;
- VII present to the General Shareholders' Meeting the annual report of the business of Copel Serviços, after hearing the Supervisory Board, if installed;
- VIII leading and coordinating the work of the Executive Board;
- IX convening and presiding over the meetings of the Executive Board;
- X grant leave to the other members of the Executive Board and appoint a substitute in cases of absence or temporary impediment;
- XI resolve issues involving conflicts of interest or conflicts of authority between the Executive Boards;
- XII exercising other duties assigned to the Chairman by the Board of Directors, in accordance with applicable law and these Bylaws.

Art. 32 The following are the duties of the other executive officers:

- I manage the activities within their respective areas of responsibility, as established in the Rules of Procedure of the Executive Boards of Copel Holding and Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries;
- II comply with the corporate guidelines and policies defined by Companhia Paranaense de Energia - Copel within the scope of Copel Serviços in its Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries, and may extend them to its directly or indirectly controlled companies, respecting their corporate processes, and, in the case of direct or indirect minority stakes, inspect governance and control practices proportional to the relevance, materiality and risks of the business of which they are participating;
- III comply with and ensure compliance with the general business guidelines of Copel Serviços, as established by the Board of Directors, with respect to the management of their specific areas of responsibility.

§ 1 The other individual duties of the executive officers shall be detailed in the Rules of Procedure of the Executive Boards of Copel Holding and Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries.

§ 2 In addition to the duties established in these Bylaws, the executive officers shall assist and support the General Executive Officer of Copel Serviços in the management of the Company's business, as well as ensure cooperation and support to the other officers within their respective areas of responsibility, aiming at achieving the objectives and interests of Copel Serviços.

§ 3 The executive officers shall perform their duties within Copel Serviços and may simultaneously hold unpaid management positions in the Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries.

§ 4 It is the responsibility of the executive officer responsible for Finance to direct the activities and coordinate the matters related to the management and planning of economic, financial, tax, accounting and budgetary, property insurance and investments in the financial market.

§ 5 Due to the private attributions of law, the executive officer responsible for the Legal and Compliance functions shall be an attorney, duly registered in the Brazilian Bar Association, according to the statute of the Law Firm and the OAB.

Art. 33 The executive officers may enter into any legal business when the value of the operation does not exceed BRL 50,000,000.00 (fifty million Brazilian reals) in accordance with the established rules by Companhia Paranaense de Energia – Copel, without prejudice to the competence attributed by the Bylaws to the Board of Directors and the Executive Board, observing the provisions of Art. 34 of these Bylaws.

Art. 34 Copel Serviços undertakes to third parties:

- I by the joint signature of 02 (two) executive officers, one of them necessarily being the General Executive Officer or the executive officer responsible for Finance, and the other, the member of the Executive Board, with duties of the specific area to which the matter refers;
- II by the signature of one (1) executive officer and one (1) attorney-in-fact, pursuant to the powers granted in the respective power of attorney;
- III by the signature of two (2) attorneys-in-fact, pursuant to the powers granted in the respective power of attorney;
- IV by the signature of one (1) attorney-in-fact, pursuant to the powers granted in the respective power of attorney, in which case exclusively for the performance of specific acts;
- V any of the executive officers may individually represent Copel Serviços in the execution of agreements and in loan operations, lease and acquisition of goods and services, in compliance with internal standards approved by the Paranaense Energy Company - Copel, allowing them to constitute representatives among employees of Copel Serviços or the Companhia Paranaense de Energia - Copel; and
- VI without prejudice to the provisions of Art. 31, item IV, of these Bylaws, the representation of Copel Serviços in court, in personal testimony, may also be exercised by attorney or by another employee designated by the General Executive Officer.

Art. 35 The members of the Executive Board may appoint attorneys-in-fact for Copel Serviços, specifying in the instrument of appointment the acts or transactions that they may perform and the duration of the power of attorney, provided that only powers of attorney granted for judicial representation in general shall have an indefinite term.

§ 1 Powers of attorney granted by Copel Serviços must be signed jointly by two (2) executive officers, specifying the powers granted and establishing a maximum term of one (1) year.

§ 2 The powers of attorney shall expressly specify the special powers acts or operations granted, within the limits of the powers held by the members of the Executive Board granting them, as well as the duration of the power of attorney, which must have a fixed term. Sub-delegation shall be prohibited, except in the case of a power of attorney for Copel Serviços representation, which may be granted for an indefinite term and may allow sub-delegation under the conditions set forth in the respective instrument.

Art. 36 Any member of the Executive Board may individually represent Copel Serviços when the act to be performed requires individual representation or in cases where the use of the electronic signature makes it impossible for two (2) or more individuals to sign the same document, subject to authorization from the Executive Board Meeting.

Vacancy and Substitutions

Art. 37 In the event of vacancies, absences, or temporary impediments of any executive officer, the General Executive Officer shall designate another member of the Executive Board to assume the functions on an interim basis.

§ 1 In the General Executive Officer's own absences or temporary impediments, he or she shall be replaced by the executive officer designated by him or her, and if no designation is made, the other executive officers shall elect a substitute at that time.

§ 2 The members of the Executive Board may not be absent from office for more than thirty

(30) consecutive days, except in cases of medical leave or in situations authorized by the Board of Directors.

§ 3 The members of the Executive Board may request unpaid leave from the Board of Directors, provided that it does not exceed three (3) months, and such leave must be recorded in the minutes.

Art. 38 In the event of the death, resignation or permanent impediment of any member of the Board, it shall be up to the Board of Directors to elect the substitute, who shall complete the term of the replaced. Until the election is held, the General Executive Officer may, pursuant to the following article, designate a provisional substitute. However, the election may be waived if the vacancy occurs in the year in which the term of the current Executive Board is set to expire.

SECTION III - EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING (RESER)

Operations

- II individuals who, within the past thirty-six (36) months, have served in the decision-making structure of a political party or have held a position in a labor union.

Art. 52 The members of the statutory bodies shall take office upon signing a term of investiture, recorded in the respective minutes book.

§ 1 The term of investiture must be signed within thirty (30) days following election or appointment, under penalty of ineffectiveness, unless justification is accepted by the body to which the member was elected. The term shall indicate at least one (1) domicile for the service of process and notices in administrative or judicial proceedings related to acts performed during the member's term of office, and any change to the designated domicile shall only be effective upon written notice to Copel Serviços.

§ 2 Investiture shall be subject to the submission of a statement of assets and liabilities, in accordance with applicable law, which must be updated annually and upon the conclusion of the term of office.

Art. 53 The investiture of the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board shall be conditioned upon the prior execution of the Administrator's Statement of Consent, and the investiture of the members of the Supervisory Board, if installed, shall be conditioned upon the prior execution of the Statement of Consent of the Members of the Supervisory Board, as well as compliance with applicable legal requirements.

Art. 54 The administrators of Copel Serviços, members of the Supervisory Board, if installed, and the Statutory Audit Committee shall adhere to the Securities Trading and Material Act or Fact Information Disclosure Policy, by signing the respective terms, if any.

Art. 55 The shareholders and the members of the Executive Board, Board of Directors, Supervisory Board, if installed, who, for any reason, have a direct, indirect, or conflicting personal interest with that of Copel Serviços in a given resolution must refrain from participating in the discussion and voting on such matter, even as representatives of third parties, with the reason for the abstention and the nature and extent of their interest to be recorded in the minutes.

Art. 56 The members of the statutory bodies shall be removed upon voluntary resignation or dismissal at any time, in accordance with applicable law and these Bylaws.

Art. 57 Except in the event of resignation or dismissal, the term of office of the members of the statutory bodies shall be automatically extended until the investiture of the new members.

Art. 58 In addition to the cases provided for by law, a vacancy shall occur when:

- I the member of the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board fails to attend two (2) consecutive meetings or three (3) non-consecutive meetings out of the last twelve (12) meetings, without justification;
- II a member of the Executive Board is absent from the performance of their duties for more than thirty (30) consecutive days, except in the case of leave of absence or in situations authorized by the Board of Directors.

Art. 59 Performance evaluation of the members of the Board of Directors, the Executive Board and the Supervisory Board of Copel Serviços will be conducted annually, if installed, and may rely on an independent institution, according to the procedure previously defined and in accordance with the Nomination, Compensation and Annual Performance Review Policy.

Art. 60 The statutory bodies shall meet validly with the presence of the majority of their members and shall adopt resolutions by a majority vote of those present, with minutes recorded in the corresponding book of minutes, which may be drawn up in summary form.

§ 1 In the event of a decision that is not unanimous, the justification for the divergent vote may be recorded, noting that the dissenting member is exempt from liability who makes his/her divergence consigned in meeting minutes or, if not possible, gives immediate and written awareness of his/her position.

§ 2 In joint deliberations of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board, the member presiding over the meeting shall have the casting vote, in addition to their personal vote.

Art. 61 Members of a statutory body may attend the meetings of other bodies when invited, without voting rights.

Art. 62 Meetings of the statutory bodies may be held in person, by teleconference, or by videoconference, in accordance with these Bylaws and the respective Rules of Procedure.

Compensation

Art. 63 The compensation of the members of the Statutory Bodies shall be set annually by the General Shareholders' Meeting, and no accumulation of compensation or any other benefits shall be allowed as a result of substitutions arising from vacancies, absences, or temporary impediments, in accordance with these Bylaws.

§1 Compensation of the members of the Supervisory Board, if installed, as set by the General Shareholders' Meeting that elects them, shall observe the minimum amount established by law, in addition to the mandatory reimbursement of travel and lodging expenses necessary for the performance of their duties.

§2 The Company's administrators or members of the Supervisory Board are prohibited from participating in more than two (2) boards, Board of Directors or Supervisory Board, or committees at Companhia Paranaense de Energia - Copel or its subsidiaries and other equity interests.

§ 3 The General Executive Officer, in his or her capacity as a member of the Board of Directors, shall not receive compensation.

CHAPTER VIII - FISCAL YEAR, FINANCIAL STATEMENTS EARNINGS, RESERVES AND DISTRIBUTION OF RESULTS

Art. 64 The fiscal year shall coincide with the calendar year, and at the end of each fiscal year, financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Federal Law No. 6.404/1976, including the requirement of an independent audit conducted by an auditor registered with such authority.

Sole Paragraph. At the end of each fiscal year, the Executive Board shall prepare the financial statements required by law, and the following rules shall be observed with respect to results:

- I accumulated losses and the provision for income tax shall be deducted from the results for the fiscal year before any allocation of profits;
- II five percent (5%) of the net income for the fiscal year shall be allocated to the Legal Reserve, which shall not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the share capital;
- III Copel Serviços may record, as a reserve, interest on investments made using its own capital in construction in progress; and
- IV other reserves may be established by Copel Serviços, in accordance with applicable law and subject to legal limits.

Art. 65 Shareholders shall be entitled, each fiscal year, to receive dividends and/or interest on equity, which shall not be less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the adjusted net income, in accordance with Federal Law No. 6.404/1976.

§ 1 Based on the retained profits, profit reserves and net profit for the current fiscal year, recorded in semi-annual or quarterly interim financial statements, the Board of Directors may deliberate the distribution of intermediate dividends, interim dividends or payment of interest on equity, provided that it complies with the Dividends Policy of Companhia Paranaense de Energia - Copel and without prejudice to the subsequent ratification of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

§ 2 Intermediate dividends, interim dividends, and interest on equity distributed pursuant to paragraph 1 shall be credited against the mandatory dividend for the fiscal year in which they are declared, in accordance with applicable law.

§ 3 Dividend distribution will not be mandatory in any fiscal year in which the Board, with the opinion of the Supervisory Board, if installed, advises the General Shareholders' Meeting that such distribution would be incompatible with financial situation of Copel Serviços.

§ 4 Profits not distributed under the terms of paragraph 2 shall be allocated to a special reserve and, if not absorbed by losses in subsequent fiscal years, shall be distributed as soon as the financial situation of Copel Serviços permits.

§ 5 For calculating the mandatory distribution percentage set forth above, amounts distributed as interest on equity shall be considered net of applicable taxes, in accordance with applicable law.

CHAPTER IX - DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Art. 66 Copel Serviços shall be dissolved and placed into liquidation in the cases provided for by law, and the General Shareholders' Meeting shall determine the method of liquidation and elect the liquidator or liquidators, as well as the Supervisory Board, if its operation is requested by shareholders representing the quorum established by law or by applicable regulations, subject to the legal formalities, and shall establish their powers and compensation.

CHAPTER X - DEFENSE MECHANISMS

Art. 67 The members of the Executive Board, of the Board of Directors, of the Supervisory Board shall be liable for losses or damages caused in the performance of their duties, in the cases provided for by law.

Art. 68 Copel Serviços shall ensure legal defense, where there is no conflict with its own interests, in judicial and administrative proceedings brought by third parties against current or former members of the statutory bodies, during or after their respective terms of office, for acts performed in the exercise of their positions or duties.

§1 The same protection set forth in the caput above shall be extended to employees, agents, and attorneys-in-fact of Copel Serviços who are named as defendants in judicial and/or administrative proceedings exclusively as a result of acts performed pursuant to mandate granted by Copel Serviços or in the exercise of powers delegated by the administrators.

§ 2 Legal defense shall be provided either through the Company's internal legal department, by contracting insurance, or, if that is not possible, by retaining an external law firm, at the discretion of Companhia Paranaense de Energia - Copel.

§ 3 If, after a formal request by the interested party, Copel Serviços fails to provide defense as set forth in paragraph 2, the individual may retain legal counsel of their choice at their own expense and shall be entitled to reimbursement of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, provided that the amounts are proposed within the parameters and conditions then prevailing in the market for the defense of said specific case, approved by the Board of Directors, and provided further that the individual is ultimately acquitted or discharged from liability.

§ 4 The Board of Directors may resolve to advance attorneys' fees in the case referred to in paragraph 3.

Art. 69 Copel Serviços shall ensure timely access to all documentation necessary for legal defense. In addition, it will bear the procedural costs, fees for any kind, administrative expenses, and deposits required to secure instance guarantee when the defense is conducted by the internal legal department.

Art. 70 If any person entitled to legal defense, among those referred to in Article 68 of these Bylaws, is found liable or convicted by a final and unappealable judgment, based on a violation of law or of the Bylaws, or arising from willful misconduct or negligence, such person shall be required to reimburse Copel Serviços for all amounts actually disbursed in connection with the legal defense, as well as for any losses caused.

Art. 71 Copel Serviços may maintain a permanent civil liability insurance policy in favor of the persons referred to in Article 68 of these Bylaws, in the form and scope defined by the Board of Directors and set forth in the applicable policy, to cover court costs and attorneys' fees arising from judicial and administrative proceedings brought against them, in order to protect them from liabilities resulting from acts performed in the exercise of their positions or duties, covering the entire term of their respective mandates.

CHAPTER VII - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 72 In the event of withdrawal of the shareholder or closing of capital, the amount to be paid by Copel Serviços as reimbursement for shares held by shareholders who have exercised the right of withdrawal, in cases authorized by law, shall correspond to the economic value of such shares, to be calculated in accordance with the evaluation procedure accepted by Federal Law No. 6.404/1976, whenever such value is less than the equity value.

Art. 73 Copel Serviços shall comply with the guidelines and procedures set forth in federal, state, and municipal legislation, as well as regulatory and normative rules issued by state and federal authorities.
