

INTERNAL REGULATION OF THE AUDIT AND RELATED PARTIES COMMITTEE OF KLABIN S.A.

Approved at Board of Directors Meeting, held on June 28, 2022.

INTERNAL REGULATION OF THE AUDIT AND RELATED PARTIES COMMITTEE OF KLABIN S.A.

Article 1. The Audit and Related Parties Committee (“Committee”) is an advisory body to the Board of Directors and to it linked thereto, subject to the laws and regulations applicable to Klabin S.A. (“Company”) and to this Internal Regulation (“Regulation”), which governs its operation.

Article 2. The Committee will be formed by 3 (three) members, to be elected by the Company's Board of Directors for a term of 1 (one) year, coinciding with the terms of the members of the Company's Board of Directors, with reelection allowed.

First Paragraph: The function of a Committee member cannot be delegated, and must be performed in compliance with the principles of loyalty and diligence, as well as in a way to avoid any conflict situations that could affect the interests of the Company and its shareholders.

Second Paragraph: Committee members must maintain an impartial posture in the performance of their activities and act in order to assist the Board of Directors in the supervision of (i) the integrity and quality of the Company's financial statements, (ii) the qualifications and independence of the independent auditor, (iii) the performance of the internal audit functions of the Company and the independent auditors, and (iv) the commutation in transactions involving related parties of the Company, as well as the respect to the rules established in the applicable legislation and regulations, in this Regulations and in the Company's Bylaws, in their areas of competence.

Third Paragraph: The majority of Committee members shall comply with the following provisions:

- a) not participating in the Company's controlling shareholder group, directly or indirectly;
- b) having an unblemished reputation; and
- c) not occupying positions in any firm that competes with the Company or its subsidiaries, and not having, nor representing, a conflict of interest with that of the Company or that of its subsidiaries.

Fourth Paragraph: At least one of the members must have recognized experience in corporate accounting matters.

Fifth Paragraph: Committee members will have the same duties and responsibilities as the managers, and must meet the requirements set forth in Article 147 of Law No. 6.404/76, and will take their positions in the Committee by signing the Instrument of Investiture, declaring the fulfillment of requirements for filling the position.

INTERNAL REGULATION OF THE AUDIT AND RELATED PARTIES COMMITTEE OF KLABIN S.A.

Article 3. The Committee Coordinator will be elected by its members, and will have the responsibility to representing, organizing and coordinating the Committee's activities.

Sole Paragraph. The Committee Coordinator is responsible for:

- a) to call, in compliance with the provisions of Article 5 below, initiate and chair Committee meetings;
- b) represent the Committee in its relationship with the Board of Directors, with the Company's Executive Board and its internal and external audits, other Committees, areas and employees of the Company, signing, when necessary, correspondence, invitations and reports forwarded thereto;
- c) invite, on behalf of the Committee, any third parties to participate in Committee meetings, in order to provide clarifications or advice; and
- d) comply with and enforce these Regulation by all other Committee members.

Article 4. In case of absence or temporary impediment of the Committee Coordinator, the Coordinator must inform to the others members of the Committee in order for them to define the member who will temporarily replace the Coordinator.

Sole Paragraph. In case of vacancy in the position of any member of the Committee, the Coordinator or, upon his/her absence, any other member of the Committee, shall communicate the fact to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, so that a meeting of the Board of Directors may be called for the election of the new member of the Committee, to complete the term of the member whose position has become vacant.

Article 5. The Committee will meet ordinarily, at least, every 3 (three) months, or, extraordinarily, whenever called by the Coordinator.

First Paragraph: The call notices of the Committee's meetings shall be made in writing, by email, at least 5 (five) days in advance of the date of the respective meeting, specifying the time and place and including the agenda, in a clear and detailed manner. Any proposal and all necessary documentation and related to the agenda, including the agenda of the meeting, must be made available to the members of the Committee upon remittance of the notice. The notice and other formalities provided herein may be waived whenever all members of the Committee are present at the meeting, or by prior written agreement of the members who are unable to attend.

Second Paragraph: In the event of matters that require urgent consideration, the Committee Coordinator may, at its sole discretion, call a Committee meeting in a period shorter than that described in the First Paragraph of this Article 5, and the meeting shall be considered valid and effective for all purposes, provided that the quorum required for installation of the meeting is observed.

Third Paragraph: The agenda of the meetings will be prepared by the Committee Coordinator, and the other members of the Committee may suggest the inclusion of additional matters to be considered by the Committee.

Fourth Paragraph: The meetings will be installed with the presence of the majority of the members of the Committee.

Fifth Paragraph: In the absence of the minimum quorum established above, the Committee Coordinator will call a new meeting, which should be held, within 3 (three) days, except if the urgency required for the subject to be dealt with does not allow it.

Sixth Paragraph: The Committee's recommendations, opinions and reports will be approved by a majority vote of the members present at the respective meetings. In the event of a tie, both statements will be sent to the Board of Directors, which will decide on the subject, if necessary.

Seventh Paragraph: The Committee's meetings will be held, preferably, at the Company's headquarters, and may be held at a different location or as described in the eighth paragraph below.

Eighth Paragraph: Participation in ordinary and extraordinary meetings of the Committee is permitted by means of a conference call, video conference or any other means of communication that allows the identification of the Committee member and simultaneous communication with all other persons present at the meeting. In this case, the members of the Committee will be considered present at the meeting and must subsequently sign the corresponding minutes.

Article 6. The Committee may call to participate in its meetings Officers, internal and external employees of the Company, as well as any other persons who have relevant information or whose subjects, contained in the agenda, are relevant to their area of activity.

Article 7. The Committee's subjects, guidelines, discussions, recommendations and opinions will be registered in the minutes of its meetings, which will be signed by the present members of the Committee, and they shall include the relevant points of discussions, the list of attending members, mention to justified absences, measures requested and possible divergence points between the members.

Sole Paragraph. The supporting documents for the meetings will be archived at the Company's headquarters together with the minutes of the respective meeting.
