RE: Material Event – Banco BBVA Argentina S.A. accepts an offer to purchase 50% (fifty percent) of FCA Compañía Financiera S.A.

Dear Sirs.

I address to you in my capacity as Head of Market Relations of Banco BBVA Argentina S.A., in compliance with the provisions of Chapter I, Title XII of the National Securities Commission Rules (Consolidated Text 2013 and its complementary and amending provisions), to inform you that as of today, Banco BBVA Argentina S.A. has accepted an offer from FIDIS S.p.A to acquire 50% of the share capital of FCA Compañía Financiera S.A. (hereinafter, "FCA CF").

FCA CF is a financial company authorized by the Board of Directors of the Central Bank of the Argentine Republic through Resolution No. 432, dated September 16, 1999. It is part of the global Stellantis automotive group, and its main activity is financing private, non-financial sector residents for the purchase of vehicles of the Fiat, Jeep, and RAM brands, all of which are produced and/or marketed by FCA Automobiles Argentina S.A.

The acquisition of the shares and payment of the price will be completed after obtaining authorization from the Central Bank of the Argentine Republic and other applicable regulatory and competition authorizations (the "Closing"). The transaction price as of today is estimated at approximately 14.823 million Argentine pesos, based on the latest available closing date, September 30, 2024. However, according to the terms of the offer, the final price will be determined based on the financial statements closest to the Closing and will be subject to customary post-closing adjustments for transactions of this type.

Finally, we would like to inform you that the information regarding FCA CF, as required by the Listing Regulations of Bolsas y Mercados Argentinos S.A., is already available to the investing public since the company is admitted to the public offering regime as an issuer of negotiable obligations.

Yours sincerely,

BANCO BBVA ARGENTINA S.A.
