Instructions on how to cast your vote Instructions for Completing the Distance Voting Ballot (BVD or Ballot), including documents, deadlines, and submission methods, are provided in the sections Guidelines for Participation in Meetings and Guidelines for Participation via BVD, as well as in the General Meeting Participation Manual (Manual) as a whole, available on Petrobras' website (http://www.petrobras.com.br/ri) and the CVM website (http://www.cvm.gov.br). Shareholders who choose to use the Ballot are solely and entirely responsible for its correct completion, regardless of how they accessed it. For questions on how to cast your vote via BVD: contact the qualified service provider or Petrobras' Investor Relations department via email at assembleias@petrobras.com.br. Specific Instructions for the Election of the Board of Directors (BoD) via Ballot: The common shares used in the separate election for a BoD member, conducted at Petrobras Annual General Meeting (AGM) on April 25, 2024, cannot be used again in the process of electing board members at this AGM. Under § 8 of Article 141 of the Brazilian Corporation Law (Lei das S.A.), the Company informs that it will maintain a record identifying the shareholders who voted in the separate election to prevent the same shares from being used again in the election of board members at this AGM. The election of the Board of Directors via BVD is structured as follows: a) Election by slate system (IF MULTIPLE VOTING IS NOT ADOPTED). Item 3: The shareholder can vote (approve, reject, or abstain) on the slate listed in the BVD. Item 4: Shareholders who approved the slate under Item 3 must indicate whether or not they wish to maintain their vote for the chosen slate if there are changes to the candidates listed on the BVD slate. A YES vote under Item 4 means the shareholder will continue voting for the slate even if one or more names are changed. b) Request for adoption of multiple voting by the shareholder Item 7: The shareholder can vote (approve, reject, or abstain) on the request for the adoption of multiple voting, as per the Instructions for Multiple Voting below. c) Election by multiple voting process, if adopted The slate election becomes invalid, and there will be 8 (eight) contested seats on the Board, in which all candidates, whether nominated by the controlling shareholder or minority shareholders, may individually receive votes. Item 8: The shareholder must indicate whether they wish to distribute votes equally among all candidates on the BVD and may vote under Item 9, as per the Instructions for Multiple Voting below. Item 9: The shareholder may indicate the candidates to whom they wish to distribute their votes equally or assign specific percentages individually, as per the Instructions for Multiple Voting below. Instructions for Multiple Voting Regarding multiple voting via BVD, it is important to highlight that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The election of BoD members generally occurs through the slate system (Items 3 and 4). However, shareholders who wish to request multiple voting must approve Item 7 on the BVD (APPROVE) so that votes can be allocated individually among the candidates. If the shareholder votes REJECT or ABSTAIN, their shares will not be counted towards the request for multiple voting.</li> <li>- If the minimum participation threshold of 5% (five percent) of voting capital required to request the adoption of multiple voting is reached, the multiple voting process will be adopted. In this case, the slate vote for candidates nominated by the controlling shareholder will become invalid (Item 3), and the election will proceed by allocating votes to each candidate (Items 8 and 9). Both candidates nominated by the controlling shareholder and those nominated by minority shareholders may individually receive votes.</li> <li>- Therefore, shareholders who wish for their votes to be counted in the election of BoD members must allocate their votes (at their discretion) under Items 8 and 9, even if they voted against the adoption of the multiple voting election under Item 7. Otherwise, the shareholder will not participate in the election of BoD members.</li> <li>- Regarding Items 8 and 9, which are only considered if the multiple voting process is adopted, the shareholder may: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(i) Choose to have their votes automatically distributed equally among all candidates listed in the BVD by voting YES under Item 8 and not approving any candidate under Item 9;</li> <li>(ii) Choose to distribute their votes equally only among selected candidates by voting YES under</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
