The company appreciates the important work done by General Joaquim Silva e Luna, for his leadership, dedication, and contribution at the head of the company's Presidency and as a member of the Board of Directors. His management was marked by the valorization of Petrobras' workforce, with emphasis on the formation of a technical Executive Board composed mostly of the company's staff. During Joaquim Silva e Luna's administration, Petrobras consolidated its financial position, becoming a strong, healthy company so it could play its social role of investing, generating jobs, paying taxes, returning dividends to shareholders, including the Union, and contributing to the
