The Company is not aware of any fact that may have triggered the occurred fluctuations on October 19, 2020.

The Company highlights the article released by the newspaper Valor Econômico on October 19, 2020, which was already questioned by means of Notice 886-SLS, under the title "C&A studies selling operations in the country", that contains, among other information, that the Brenninkmeijer family, controller of the fashion retailer C&A, based in the Netherlands, considers selling its position in the Brazilian operation, as part of a plan to concentrate business in Europe.

As informed in the Material Fact released on October 19, 2020, the Company has questioned the controlling shareholders (COFRA Holding) and obtained the following answer: "COFRA Holding notes the article published by Valor Econômico on 19 October 2020. COFRA confirms that no process is currently underway with regards to C&A Modas S.A. and COFRA remains supportive of the business and its performance".
