The most relevant contributions in 2019 totaled R$ 34.3 million (approximately 95% of the total) and were destined to entities that work in the defense of causes of our interest:

- Brazilian Federation of Banks (FEBRABAN – Federação Brasileira de Bancos) - the main representative entity of the Brazilian banking sector, it is a non-profit association that is committed to strengthening the financial system and its relations with society and contributing to the economic, social and sustainable development of the country (<https://portal.febraban.org.br>) - R$ 32.2 million.

- Brazilian Association of Credit Card and Services Companies (ABECS – Associação Brasileira das Empresas de Cartões de Crédito e Serviços) - supports and operates in the card market since 1971 for the sustainable development of the sector and aims to represent the electronic payment sector, ensuring the interests of its members and contributing to the development of the market and society (<https://www.abecs.org.br/>) - R $ 1.05 million.

- Brazilian Association of Real Estate Credit and Savings Institutions (ABECIP – Associação Brasileira das Entidades de Crédito Imobiliário e Poupança) - aims to defend the rights and interests of associated entities, collaborate for the development and encourage the improvement of the Brazilian Savings and Loan System - SBPE, of the Housing Finance System - SFH, of the Real Estate Financing System - SFI and of the National Financial System - SFN (<https://www.abecip.org.br/>) - R $ 1 million.

These institutions aim to strengthen the financial system and its relations with society, as well as to contribute to the economic and social development of the country and to influence legislative activities and chambers of commerce, trade boards and the like, among others. Such entities also play an important role in the continuous improvement of the productivity of the banking system, with the reduction and control of risk levels; for greater efficiency in financial intermediation, aiming at increasing the supply of credit and reducing its cost; and for the creation of conditions that enable society's growing access to financial products and services. They are also responsible for carrying out and disseminating studies and research on the financial system, aimed at its regulatory and operational improvement.

As provided for in our Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct, we prohibit the financing of political parties or candidates for public office in Brazil and in the countries in which we operate.
