NOTICE TO THE MARKET

Investment in Stripe, Inc.

G2D INVESTMENTS, LTD. (B3: G2DI33) ("Company"), announces to the market that it has acquired, through the secondary market, preferred shares of Stripe, Inc ("Stripe") for R$ 16 million<sup>1</sup>. The investment was carried out jointly with Expanding Capital and other investors and in accordance with the Company's 2023 investment plan.

About Stripe

Founded in 2010, Stripe is one of the biggest payment technology companies in the and one of the private companies with the highest market value. The company provides a quick and easy onboarding process for vendors, an integrated payments processing system, and an expansive array of customization options, with added security and compliance benefits that get updated in real-time as rules and regulations change. At a high level, Stripe is a payment service provider that business owners can use to accept dozens of payment methods, from credit cards to buy now and pay later services from third-party providers such as Affirm, Afterpay, and Klarna. It monetizes by charging a fee on each transaction.
