Enauta announces Décio Oddone as new CEO

Rio de Janeiro, September 21, 2020

Enauta Participações S.A. (“Enauta”, “Company”, B3: ENAT3) informs its shareholders and the market in general that, on this date, the Board of Directors elected Mr. Décio Oddone as the Company’s Chief Executive Officer, replacing of Mr. Lincoln Rumenos Guardado, effective immediately. The succession process was discussed along with the Company’s Board of Directors, in compliance with prevailing Succession and Designation Policies. Mr. Guardado will remain in office as an advisor until December 2020, working jointly with Mr. Oddone to assure a smooth transition.

Décio Oddone, an engineer with 35-year experience in the oil and gas sector, held leadership positions in public and private companies in Brazil and abroad, a broad experience that he will bring on board to Enauta. After working at Petrobras, Braskem, and Prumo Logística, Mr. Oddone recently stood out at his role as Director-General of the National Agency of Oil, Natural Gas, and Biofuels (ANP).

“Taking the helm of Enauta, after Lincoln Guardado’s leadership, is indeed a great challenge. Enauta has consolidated its position as a significant player in Brazil’s oil and gas sector. I expect to contribute to the Company’s growth, endorsing the legacy of my predecessors while broadening business horizons”, affirms Oddone.

The chairman of Enauta’s Board of Directors, Mr. Antônio Augusto de Queiroz Galvão, adds that “Oddone’s knowledge and technical expertise will lead the Company, supported by his over 35-year experience in the sector. I have no doubt that Décio’s successful career will endure as Enauta’s CEO, delivering excellent results for the Company.”

The board members expressed their gratitude to Mr. Lincoln Rumenos Guardado for his efforts, dedication, and great contribution to Enauta over the past 11 years.
