Eztec presents Reserva São Caetano Bosque, a new launch that is part of the project marking the company's arrival in São Caetano do Sul, the city with the highest HDI in the country. Located next to Treviso Province Park, the development has easy access to Avenida do Estado and the São Caetano CPTM station. With units measuring 33, 47, and 64 s.q.m, the project offers spacious and varied floor plans. With more than 20 leisure items, Reserva São Caetano Bosque has a playground, swimming pools, game room, toy room, and barbecue area. For added convenience, the development also offers optional pay-per-use services such as cleaning, pet care, laundry, beauty care, and personal training. The development combines convenience, complete leisure, and the construction quality that is a trademark of Eztec.
