If the shareholder chooses to exercise their right to vote remotely, pursuant to CVM Resolution 81/22 ("RCVM 81"), they must complete this remote voting ballot ("BVD"), observing the instructions contained in this document and the provisions set forth in the Company's Management Proposal regarding the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting ("EGM"). The ballot will only be considered valid, and the votes cast therein will only be counted toward the quorum of the EGM, if all fields are duly completed.

It is essential that this BVD be completed with the shareholder's full name (or corporate name), the CNPJ number, in the case of a legal entity, or the CPF number, in the case of an individual, as well as an email address for potential contact.

Votes cast by shareholders will not be considered in cases where the BVD and/or the shareholder representation documents listed below are sent (or resent and/or rectified, as applicable) without observing the deadlines and submission formalities indicated below.

Instructions for sending your ballot, indicating the delivery process by sending it directly to the Company or through a qualified service provider

Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) - CURY CONSTRUTORA E INCORPORADORA S.A. to be held on 04/17/2026

If the shareholder chooses to exercise their right to vote remotely, they may: (i) send the Remote Voting Ballot (“BVD”) directly to the Company; or (ii) submit the voting instructions through service providers, in accordance with the following guidelines:

Once the deadline for submission of the BVD has expired, the shareholder may not change the voting instructions submitted, except at the EGM itself, upon an explicit request to disregard the voting instructions previously submitted through the BVD prior to the voting on the respective matter.

Submission directly to the Company:

If the shareholder chooses to send the BVD directly to the Company, they must, by April 13, 2026, through the digital platform:

(i) access the link: <https://assembleia.ten.com.br/480348169>

(ii) complete and finalize the prior registration, either as a shareholder or as a proxy of shareholder(s), and upload the necessary documents in accordance with the instructions provided below and the step-by-step guidelines available on the digital platform, selecting the participation option “Remote Voting Ballot (BVD)”;

(iii) if acting as a proxy, register the shareholder(s) they represent;

(iv) select the “Meeting” tab and subsequently “BVD”, choose the respective shareholder(s), and then complete the voting option fields in the BVD related to the EGM; and

(v) confirm the selection of the voting options in order to cast the respective votes.

The BVD must be sent accompanied by copies of the following documents:

a) individuals: a simple copy of the identification document, provided it includes the photo of the holder and/or their legal representative, as well as documents evidencing legal representation;

b) legal entities: a simple copy of the identification document with photo of the representative and documents evidencing legal representation, including (1) the latest consolidated articles of incorporation or bylaws; and (2) the corporate documents evidencing the legal representation of the shareholder by the administrator who (2.i) attends the EGM as the representative of the legal entity, or (2.ii) signs a proxy so that a third party may represent the shareholder that is a legal entity (the legal representative must also submit a photo identification document); and

c) investment funds: simple copies of: (1) the identification document with photo of the representative of the fund’s administrator or manager, as provided in the fund’s regulations; (2) the updated and consolidated fund regulations, duly registered with the competent authority, when applicable; and (3) the corporate documents evidencing the legal representation of the shareholder by the administrator who (i) attends the EGM as the representative of the legal entity, or (ii) signs a proxy so that a third party may represent the shareholder that is a legal entity.

Any power of attorney must comply with Article 126, paragraph 1, of the Brazilian Corporation Law, and digital signatures are accepted through digital certificates issued by certification authorities linked to ICP-Brasil.

Pursuant to RCVM 81, within up to three (3) days from the receipt of the BVD, the Company will inform the shareholders, by email to the electronic address provided above: (i) of the receipt of the BVD and whether the BVD and any accompanying documents are sufficient for the shareholder’s vote to be considered valid; or (ii) of the need to rectify or resend the BVD or the documents accompanying it, describing the procedures and deadlines required to regularize the remote vote.

The shareholder may rectify or resend the BVD or the documents accompanying it, provided that the deadline for receipt by the Company, indicated above, is observed.

Submission through service providers:

As permitted by RCVM 81, in addition to sending the BVD directly to the Company, shareholders may submit instructions for completing the BVD to service providers authorized to collect and transmit BVD completion instructions, provided that such instructions are received by April 13, 2026, inclusive, or by another specific date indicated by the respective service providers.

- Shareholders with shares held in book-entry form: may exercise remote voting through the Company’s bookkeeper.
- Shareholders who wish to send the BVD to the central depository: may exercise remote voting through the central depository, in accordance with the operational rules and procedures established by it. Voting directly through the B3 Central Depository must be carried out through the electronic system made available by B3, accessible through the Investor Area (www.investidor.b3.com.br)

), in the section “Services – Remote Voting”, under the tab “Open Meetings”. The shareholder must register the vote for each resolution and, at the end, click on “Submit Vote”.

- Shareholders with shares held through a custodian/broker: must verify the procedures for voting with the custodian institution of the shares.

- Shareholders with shares held in more than one institution: need only send the voting instruction to one institution. The vote will always be considered based on the shareholder’s total number of shares.

For additional information, shareholders should contact their respective custody agents or the Company’s bookkeeper and verify the procedures established by them, as well as the documents and information required by them. Such service providers will inform shareholders of the receipt of the voting instructions or the need to rectify or resend them, establishing the applicable procedures and deadlines.

Voting instructions that are conflicting in relation to the same resolution and issued by the same shareholder identified by their CPF or CNPJ number—will be disregarded, in accordance with RCVM 81.
