NOTICE TO MARKET

AMBIPAR ANNOUNCES "UNIVERSO", THE NEW COMPANY OF THE GROUP FOCUSED ON BRINGING UP TO FINAL CONSUMERS PRODUCTS DEVELOPED WITH RECYCLED MATERIALS.

Ambipar Participações e Empreendimentos S.A. ("Ambipar" or "Company") (B3: AMBP3), informs its shareholders and the market in general, with the aim of continuing to promote the circular economy, one of Ambipar's core values, the launch of "UNIVERSO Ambipar".

"UNIVERSO" is the new company of the group focused on bringing to the final consumers, through its physical store and its e-commerce, products of daily use of long duration, developed mainly with recycled materials from the waste of the client industries of Ambipar Environment ESG, and also its post-consumer operation.

Universo Ambipar's mission is to accelerate the spread of the circular economy in people's daily lives, and thus contribute to the gradual reduction of carbon emissions. Disseminating information on sustainability, UNIVERSO proposes conscious consumption with a line of household products with design and adherent sums of good practices from the raw material used to the relationship with suppliers, commercial partners and the general public.

UNIVERSO is born with a line of products such as recycled aluminum and PET plastic luminaires, collected by the Group, and products developed in ambipar's laboratory in Nova Odessa as the shampoo and conditioner made from the collagen leftovers of the pharmaceutical industry, the eco alcohol made from sugar, corn and rice tailings. In its textile line, UNIVERSO seeks to show the possibilities of using technology in sustainable raw materials such as banana peel fabrics, corn starch and biodegradable plastic.

As part of the Ambipar Group, which through its Ambify application has given an affordable solution for industries and individuals to make up for their carbon footprint, in UNIVERSO all products arrive in your home totally carbon neutralized.
