

Ranking VALOR 1000 brings together the best performing companies in Brazil

The classification is based on criteria of the FGV (Fundação Getúlio Vargas) and Serasa by the newspaper Valor Econômico, one of the country's leading economics and finance publications.

The ranking measures the performance of companies by means of indicators such as general classification, region highlights, liquidity, region's largest, interest coverage, among others.

In the ranking of 2017 published this week CerradinhoBio was present in 4 categories:
