MATERIAL FACT

Favorable appellate court decision on the public-interest civil action in Colombo, Paraná

Eternit S.A. – Under Court-Supervised Reorganization (B3: ETER3, “Company” or “Eternit”), in compliance with CVM Instruction 358/2002 and complementing the Material Fact notice dated November 28, 2018, informs its shareholders and the market that Eternit's appeal was partially upheld and that of Labor Prosecution Office (MPT) was unfounded, by the Regional Labor Court of the State of Paraná, which maintained the decision adjudicated in the lower courts in the records of the Public-Interest Civil Action filed by the MPT in relation to the Colombo (PR) plant.

Therefore, the following claims of MPT remain denied: (i) collective pain and suffering in the amount of R$85 million; (ii) expansion of post-dismissal medical examinations; and (iii) granting of medical assistance for life to all former employees.

The partial judgment for plaintiff was limited to the substitution of chrysotile asbestos in the Colombo industrial unit, which already has been performed and is in line with the company's guidelines.

Eternit will keep its shareholders and the market informed of further developments on the subject of this Material Fact.
