The SLC Agrícola S.A. (B3: SLCE3; ADR's: SLCJY; BLOOMBERG: SLCE3:BZ; Refinitiv: SLCE3.SA) ("SLC Agrícola"), announces to its shareholders and the market in general that on this date the contract to expand our partnership with Agro Penido Landco was signed.

SLC Agrícola has a Joint Venture with Agro Penido, since 2013, in the municipality of Querência/MT. This Joint Venture called Fazenda Pioneira, has 19,872 physical hectares with a potential planted area of 33,552 hectares (considering 2 crops).

Business with Agro Penido, over the last 11 years, has been very productive and, as a result of this success, we are expanding our partnership with the addition of 18,700 physical hectares, with planting potential (considering the 2nd crop) of 30,734 hectares, adjacent to the area currently in operation. Of these 18,700 physical hectares, 9,791 hectares are already arable areas and 8,909 hectares are pasture areas, to be converted to agriculture. Currently, at Fazenda Pioneira, we produce soy and corn, our future intention is to start producing soy, corn, cotton and produce meat in a crop-livestock integration system (ILP).

The current contract for Fazenda Pioneira has a term until the 2027/2028 crop year, with the expansion of the Joint Venture, the term of the two combined areas will be extended until the 2043/2044 crop year. With this expansion of the partnership, the new physical area becomes 38,572 hectares, and the new planting potential of Fazenda Pioneira becomes 64,286 hectares.

The participation in the Joint Venture remains unchanged, SLC Agrícola holds 50% and Agro Penido the other 50%.
