

Ingrid Palma Araújo

Ingrid Palma Araújo was a technical advisor in the Special Advisory on Strategic Management at MME (2008-2015) and then became an advisor and substitute for the Chief of the Special Advisory for Internal Controls at the Ministry of Mines and Energy (MME), a position that currently exercises. Among her activities can be mentioned: assisting the head of the advisory service in advising the Minister of State at the MME; guide other managers / administrators of public goods and resources in the preparation and review of internal rules, manuals, and subsidies for the annual accountability of the President of the Republic; to act in the interlocution between the ministry and the organs of external, internal and defense of the State; monitor the fulfillment of the demands of the control bodies; technical guidance, supervision and monitoring of the LAI (Law No. 12,527 / 2011) and the implementation of the MME Integrity Plan, Risk Management Policy and Open Data Plan; and act in the improvement and adaptation to the new procedures pertinent to the Governance, Risks and Integrity Policies (Decree nº 9.203 / 2017), Information Security (Decree nº 9.637 / 2018), Data Privacy (Law nº 13.709 / 2018 - LGPD), Compliance and Conflict of Interest (Law No. 12,813 / 2013).

Fonte: www.eletrobras.com

Atualizado em: 27 de maio de 2021

Centrais Elétricas Brasileiras S.A. - Eletrobras