

Volaris reports a record post-pandemic growth rate in Monterrey

- In 2022, the airline transported one million passengers in the International Airport of Monterrey

Monterrey, Nuevo León, February 7, 2023 – Volaris (NYSE: VLRS and BMV: VOLAR) (“the Company”), the ultra-low-cost carrier (ULCC) serving Mexico, the United States, Central and South America, reported a 48 percent increase in its number of seats offered in 2022, the largest growth rate in its post-pandemic recovery, transporting one million clients in the International Airport of Monterrey.

Volaris connects Monterrey with seven routes and a fleet of four aircraft. Since the beginning of its operations in March 2006, the airline has transported 13 million passengers to and from this destination.

According to the Department of Tourism of Nuevo León, the economic boost from tourism in 2022 was more than 15.4 billion pesos, a 51 percent increase compared to 2021. Furthermore, according to the National Committee for Commerce, Services, and Tourism (Canacope), the state’s tourism sector will grow approximately 4 percent in 2023.

“We are very happy and ready to celebrate with a carne asada. Thanks to the growth in tourism, as well as its industrial and commercial potential, Monterrey will continue to be one of the primary domestic destinations in 2023. As Volaris, we want to continue being a part of this growth, by offering a differentiated service at the lowest cost,” stated Omar Carrera, Commercial Director of Volaris.

The 7 destinations to which Volaris connects Monterrey are: Cancún, Guadalajara, Mexico City, Mérida, Puebla, Puerto Vallarta, and Tijuana.

Volaris is the airline with the largest market share in Mexico (42 percent). During 2022, it transported 30.9 million passengers, grew its fleet from 101 to 117 aircraft and its routes from 185 to 200, solidifying its position as the largest airline in the country for the fourth year in a row.

The information included in this report has not been audited and does not provide information on the company’s future performance. Volaris’ future performance depends on many factors. It cannot be inferred that any period’s performance or its comparison year over year will indicate a similar performance in the future.

About Volaris:

Controladora Vuela Compañía de Aviación, S.A.B. de C.V. (“Volaris” or the “Company”) (NYSE: VLRS and BMV: VOLAR) is an ultra-low-cost carrier, with point-to-point operations, serving Mexico, the United States, Central, and South America. Volaris offers low base fares to build its market, providing quality service and extensive customer choice. Since the beginning of operations in March 2006, Volaris has increased its routes from 5 to more than 200 and its fleet from 2 to 117 aircraft. Volaris offers more than 550 daily flight segments on routes that connect 43 cities in Mexico and 28 cities in the United States, Central, and South America, with one of the youngest fleets in Mexico. Volaris targets passengers who are visiting friends and relatives, cost-conscious business and leisure travelers in Mexico, the United States, and Central and South America. Volaris has received the ESR Award for Social Corporate Responsibility for thirteen consecutive years, joined the Dow Jones Sustainability MILA Pacific Alliance Index in 2020, and the S&P/BMV Total Mexico ESG Index of the Mexican Stock Exchange (BMV) in 2021. For more information, please visit www.volaris.com.

Public Relations Contact

Alonso Rodríguez | arodriguez@gcya.net | 55 5435 924