This presentation does not constitute or form part of any offer or invitation for sale or subscription of or solicitation or invitation of any offer to buy or subscribe for any securities, nor shall it or any part of it form the basis of or be relied on in connection with any contract or commitment whatsoever.

This presentation includes estimates and forward-looking statements within the meaning of US federal securities laws. These estimates and forward-looking statements are based mainly on our current expectations and estimates of future events and trends that affect or may affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flow, liquidity, and the trading price of our preferred shares, including in the form of ADSs. Although we believe these estimates and forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, they are subject to many significant risks, uncertainties and assumptions and are made reflecting information currently available to us.

These statements appear throughout this presentation and include statements regarding our intent, belief or current expectations in connection with changes in market prices, customer demand and preferences, competitive conditions, general economic, political and business conditions in Brazil, particularly in the geographic markets we serve and may serve in the future, our ability to keep costs low, existing and future governmental regulations, increases in maintenance costs, fuel costs and insurance premiums, our ability to maintain landing rights in the airports that we operate, air travel substitutes, labor disputes, employee strikes and other labor related disruptions, including in connection with negotiations with unions, our ability to attract and retain qualified personnel, our aircraft utilization rate, defects or mechanical problems with our aircraft, our ability to successfully implement our growth strategy, including our expected fleet growth, passenger growth, our capital expenditure plans, our future joint venture and partnership plans, our ability to enter new airports (including international airports) that match our operating criteria, management's expectations and estimates concerning our future financial performance and financing plans and programs, our level of debt and other fixed obligations, our reliance on third parties, including changes in the availability or increased cost of air transport infrastructure and airport facilities, inflation, depreciation and devaluation of the real, our aircraft and engine suppliers and other factors or trends affecting our financial condition or results of operations, including those factors identified or discussed as set forth under "Risk Factors" in the prospectus included in our registration statement on Form F-1 (No 333 215908 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Registration Statement").

In addition, in this presentation, the words "believe," "understand," "may," "will," "aim," "estimate," "continue," "anticipate," "seek," "intend," "expect," "should," "could," and similar words are intended to identify forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on such statements, which speak only as of the date they were made. We do not undertake any obligation to update publicly or to revise any forward-looking statements after we distribute this presentation because of new information, future events or other factors. Our independent public auditors have neither examined nor compiled the forward-looking statements and, accordingly, do not provide any assurance with respect to such statements. Considering the risks and uncertainties described above, the future events and circumstances discussed in this presentation might not occur and are not guarantees of future performance. Because of these uncertainties, you should not make any investment decision solely based upon these estimates and forward-looking statements.

In this presentation, we present EBITDA, which is a non-IFRS performance measure and is not a financial performance measure determined in accordance with IFRS and should not be considered in isolation or as alternatives to operating income or net income or loss, or as indications of operating performance, or as alternatives to operating cash flows, or as indicators of liquidity, or as the basis for the distribution of dividends. Accordingly, you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on this information.

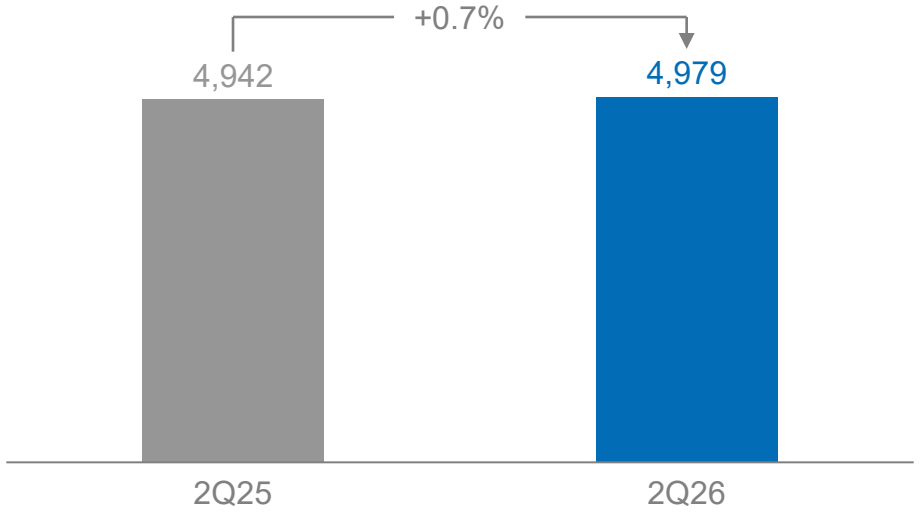
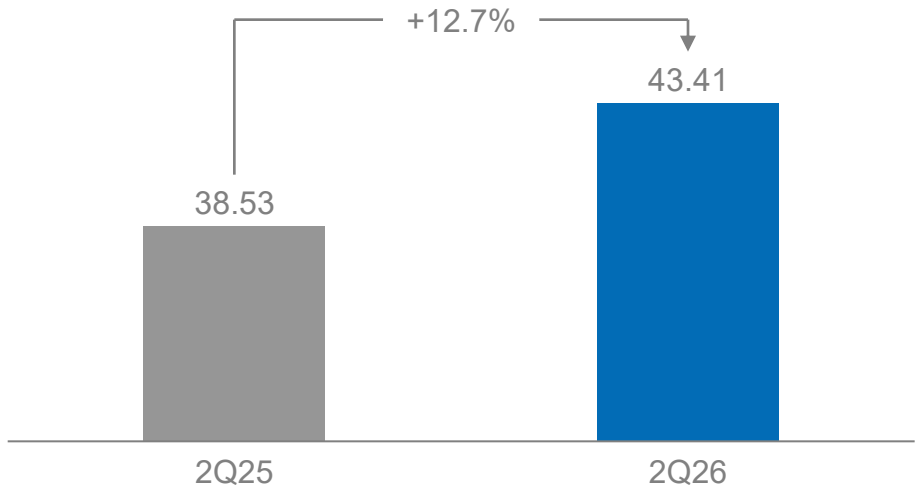
Revenue Resilience Through Capacity Discipline

Revenue
(R$ million)



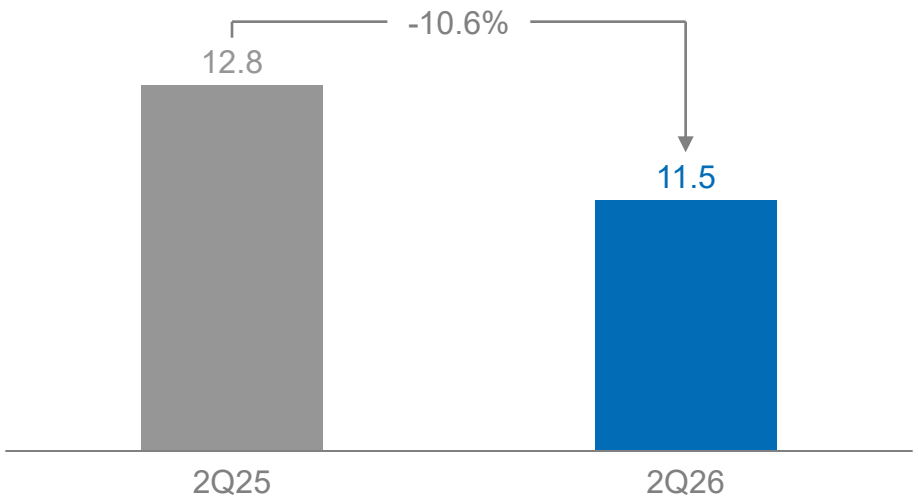
RASK
(R$ cents)



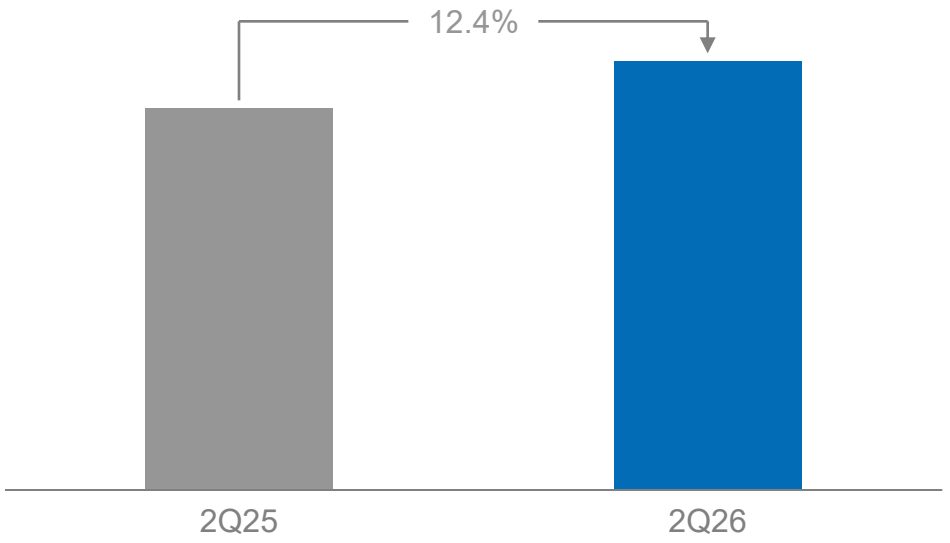
The ability to grow revenue despite lower capacity underscores the resilience of our business model and the effectiveness of our disciplined capacity management strategy

Premium Revenue Expansion

Capacity Reduction
(R$ billion)

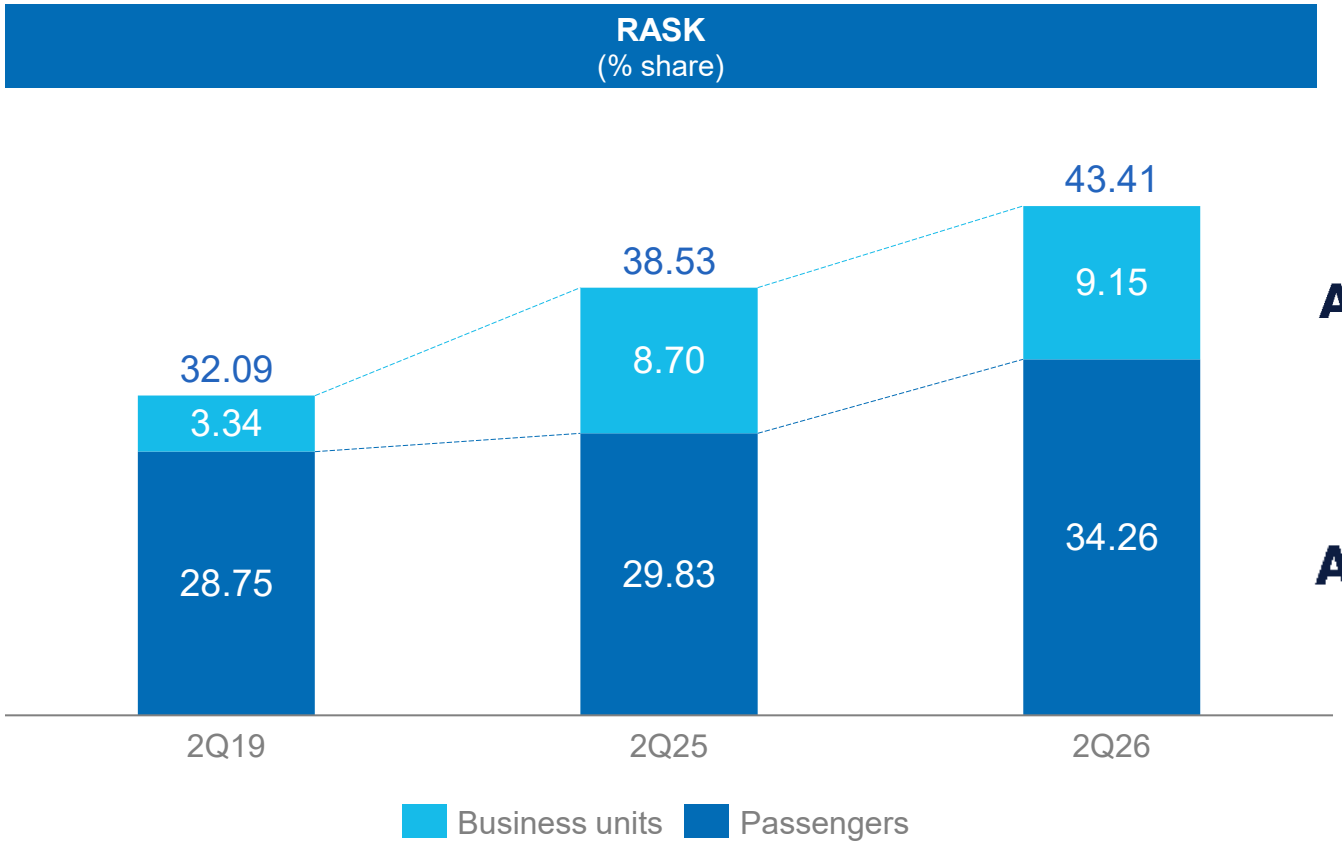


Premium Revenue Growth



Capturing premium demand through a strategic focus on high-yield customers, enhanced customer experience, and the introduction of new premium products

Strong Contribution from Beyond-the-Metal Business Units



In the quarter, even with average fare increasing 9.5% the business units contribution remained representing more than 20% RASK

Volatile Heating Oil Curve

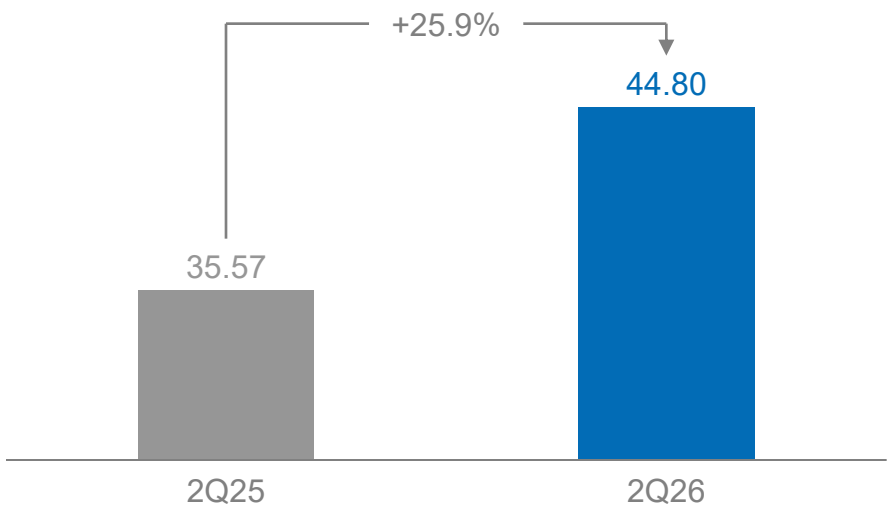
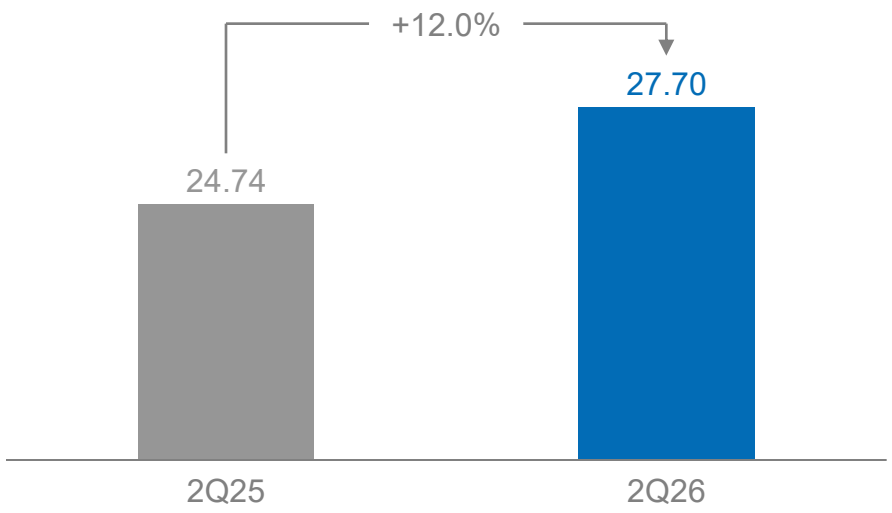
CASK Increased Primarily Due to Higher Fuel Price

CASK[1]
(Adjusted, R$ cents)



CASK ex-Fuel[1]
(Adjusted, R$ cents)



CASK increased in 2Q26, primarily reflecting a 61.8% increase in fuel cost per liter, lower capacity, strategic temporary retention initiatives, higher sales incentives due to increased fares and inflation

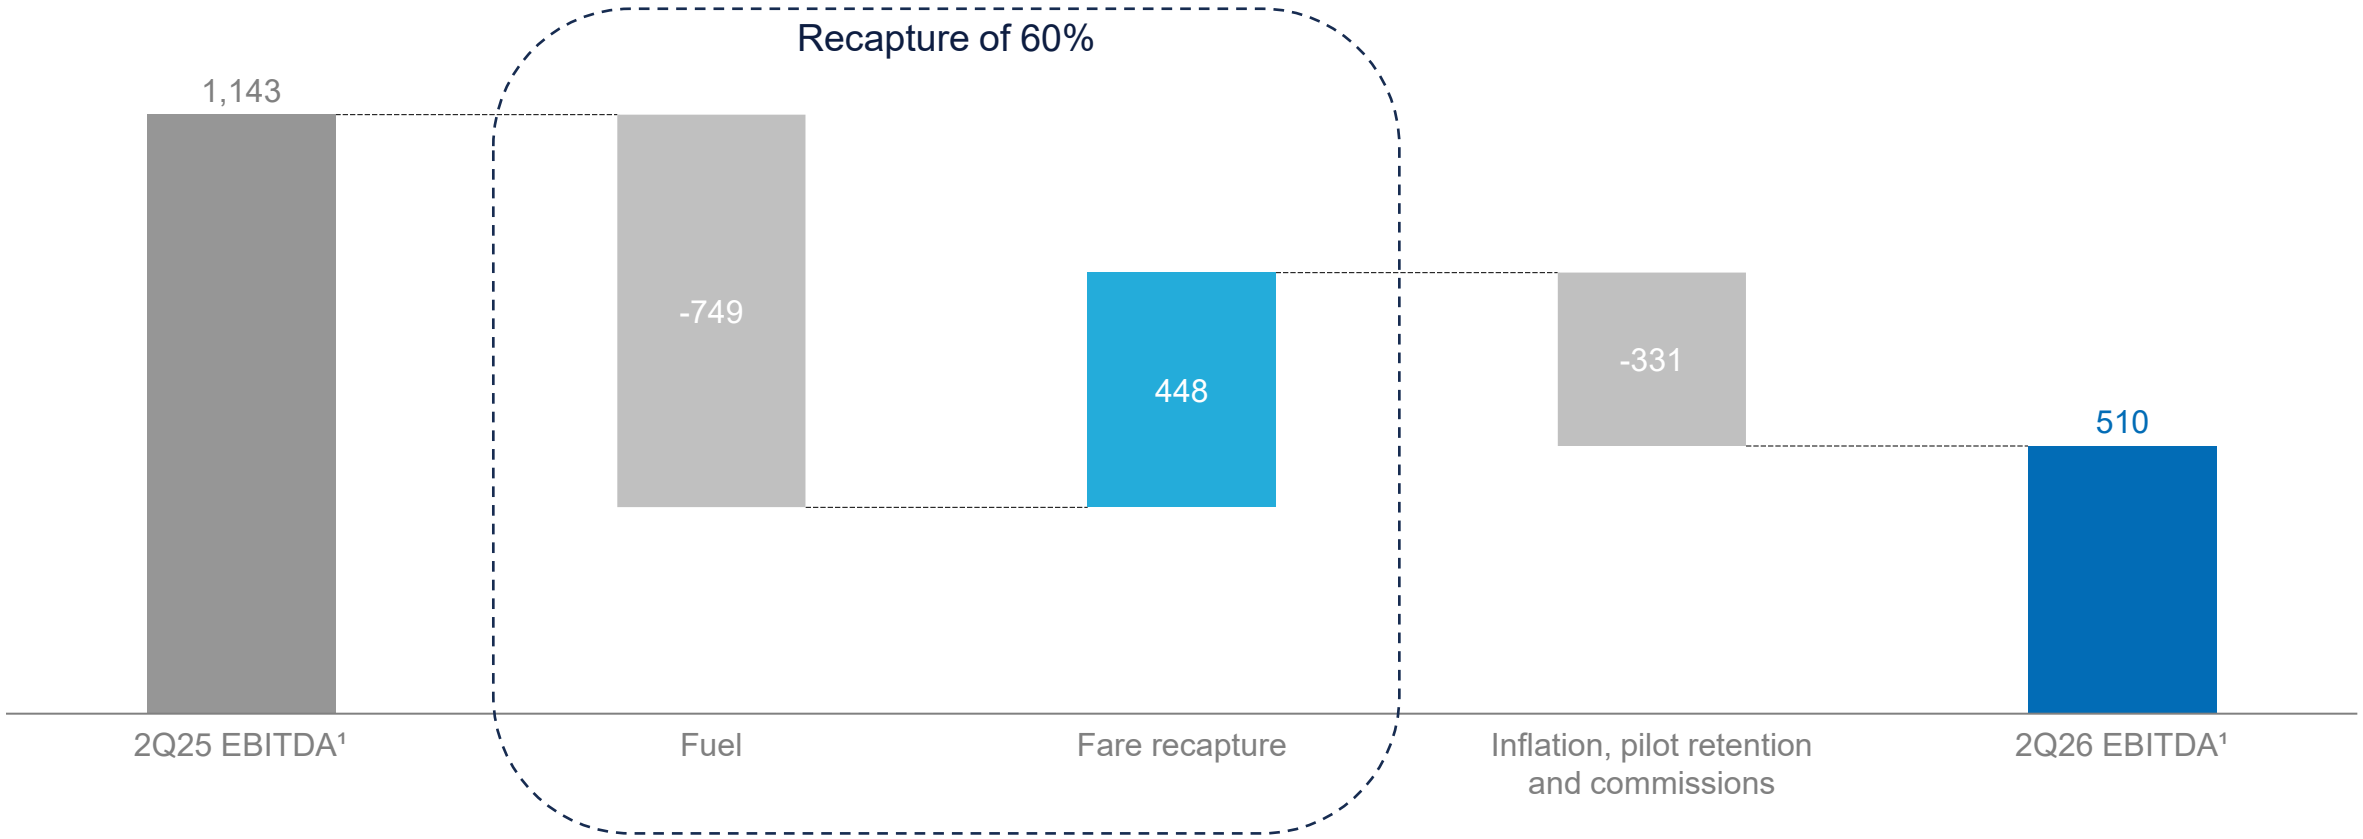
Fare Recapture Improves as Capacity and Pricing Actions Offset Higher Fuel Costs

EBITDA
(R$ million)



Azul recaptured 60% of the fuel price impact through higher fares in 2Q26, with further improvement expected during the seasonally stronger second half of the year

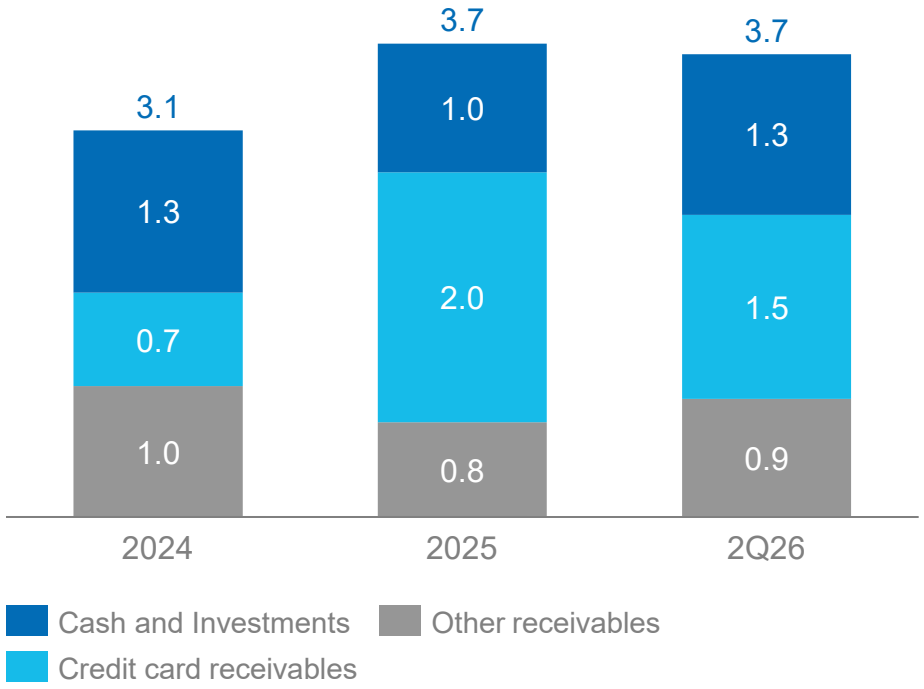
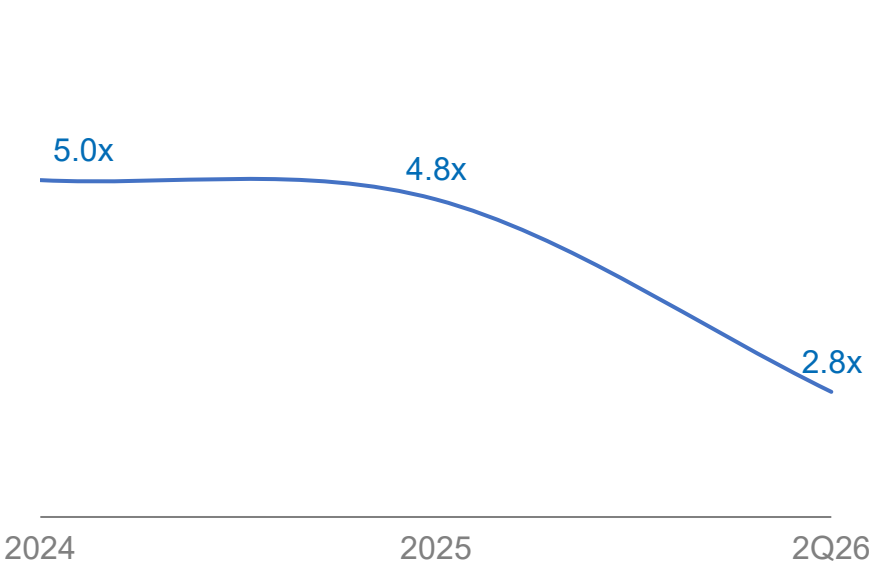
Executing on Our Deleveraging Strategy

Immediate Liquidity
(R$ billion)



Leverage[1]
(Net debt / LTM EBITDA)

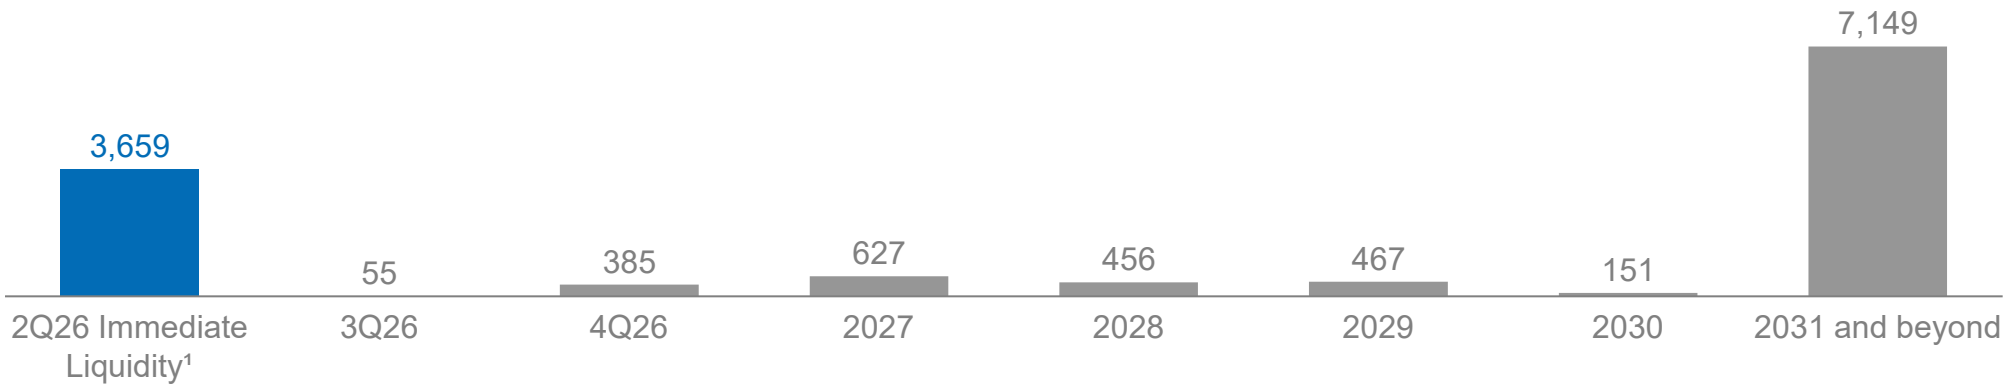


Continued balance sheet optimization and lower debt levels drove leverage down to 2.8x, highlighting the effectiveness of Azul's deleveraging strategy

[1] Leverage calculated using immediate liquidity which includes cash, cash equivalents, short-term investments and account receivables. Using available liquidity leverage would lower than 3.0x.

Significantly Improved Debt Profile

Principal debt amortization as of June 30, 2026
(R$ million converted at R$5.18 per dollar)



Azul has no material debt maturities until 2031, providing enhanced liquidity visibility and financial flexibility

¹ Immediate liquidity includes cash, cash equivalents, short-term investments and accounts receivable.

Government-Backed Financing Strengthens Liquidity Position

FNAC/BNDES Financing	Conditions
Amount	Up to R$ 2.6 billion
Tenor	5 years

FGE|ABGF-Backed Fuel Financing	Conditions
Amount	Up to R$ 2 billion
Tenor	3 years

Approval of both FGE and FNAC facilities marks a key milestone following the restructuring, providing greater financial flexibility to execute the long-term plan
