AR$ system loan demand remains weak, with loans expanding slightly above inflation QoQ in challenging context

Loans to Private Sector [AR$ Bill. in Nominal terms]

Loans to Private Sector [Original Currency]

AR$ system deposits slightly below inflation QoQ on seasonality and higher spending due the gradual relaxation of social distancing protocols, while US$ deposit outflows continued. High liquidity levels in both currencies

Private Sector Deposits [AR$ Bill. in Nominal terms]

Private Sector Deposits [Original Currency]

Total assets down 3% QoQ driven by weak credit demand and a cautious approach to risk management

Perspectives

Loans	An anticipated mild rebound in economic activity is expected to drive loan growth above inflation
Deposits	Increasing above inflation, fostered by FX market restrictions and the floor on interest rate paid to time deposits
Asset Quality	A challenging macroeconomic scenario may result in a deterioration in NPLs in 4Q20-1H21. Provisions could be revised upwards if conditions worsen
NIM	Short term NIM remains pressured by higher cost of funds and diminishing yields on loans
Operating Expenses	Salaries likely to grow at or below inflation, while incurring additional expenses related to acceleration of digital transformation
Fee Income	Regulations prohibit further repricing until February 2021. Caps in place for 2021. Challenging economic scenario
Capital & Liquidity	Appropriate levels that support long-term sustainability
