4.3. Relationship with stakeholders

In relation to engagement and relationships with stakeholders, M. Dias Branco values principles such as transparency, respect and ethics.

Stakeholder identification and prioritization mechanisms were applied during the review of the Strategic Sustainability Agenda 2022-2030. The stakeholders listed below were prioritized using the following methodologies: AA 1000 AccountAbility principles 2018 and AA1000 Stakeholder Engagement Standard 2015. Systematically, aspects such as dependence, responsibility, tension, influence and diverse perspectives were evaluated. The main stakeholders were: investors, employees, customers and consumers, suppliers, local communities, government, Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) and the press. In addition to these, the following were considered during the application of the methodology: unions, competitors, distributors, civil society, class/sectoral associations, influencers, regulatory bodies, universities and research institutions.

Through integrated annual reports, events, meetings and targeted communications, among others, the Company renders its accounts to its various stakeholders. In addition, channels are offered for receiving feedback, such as: Ethical Channel, website (brands and institutional), social networks, corporate email, social networks, SAC services, among others.

Stakeholder engagement provides the Company with relevant inputs to be considered in strategic planning, as well as for defining the Strategic Sustainability Agenda, integrating the most relevant socio-environmental themes, as presented in the next topic.

4.4 Guidelines for Central and Relevant themes

We seek, through our management practices, to make our commitment to business Sustainability increasingly effective.

We believe that the pillars of finance, people, society and the environment are fundamental to achieving sustainable development.

The Company values management methodologies that consider the various stakeholders, with the definition of material themes, that is, the central and relevant themes that impact Sustainability practices.

Our strategy is focused on organic growth and through acquisitions, with the expansion of operational efficiency, operations in new businesses and maintenance of the dividend policy, always committed to Sustainability and guided by the highest standards of business management and corporate governance.

Through a materiality process, which identifies the themes of this strategy with the greatest economic, social and environmental impact relevant to the Company and its stakeholders, the following 15 priority themes were defined distributed across three pillars: caring for the planet (Environmental), believing people (Social) and strengthen alliances (Governance). For each theme, long-term indicators and goals were established, until 2030. Check the list of themes below and to identify the goals established in each one, visit: www.mdiasbranco.com.br/sustentabilidade
